

Is There A Magic Sentence To Sell

There is no magic sentence to sell!

I repeat: No Magic Sentence That Will Sell!

Based on my years of experience, there is no magic sentence.

Plus, the people that are looking for a magic sentence to sell, are basically just too lazy to put in the work.

There is no shortcut to selling. It takes work. And only the best will excel at it.

I suggest aim to be the best and don't look for the magic sentence.

The closest you can get to a magic sentence by the way is by saying with pure and good intentions:
"Buy this product now!"

It's still not fool proof.

But this is what gets closest to it.
